Putnam River Trail

This approximately 2-mile biking and walking trail begins at Arch Street and winds its way north along the eastern shore of the Quinebaug River. The trail runs adjacent to Kennedy Drive for about 2 miles before terminating at Providence Street. The path of the trail runs through woodlands, 2 parks, an antique shopping district, and near revitalized mills. Five historic exhibits are located along the trail commemorating Putnam's railroad history, textile mills, and founding citizens. The river's natural resources and The Great Flood of 1955 are highlighted as well. There are 3 bridges adjacent to the trail including a 200-foot pedestrian bridge built on the stone foundation of an old railroad trestle. Each bridge offers scenic views of the river.

River Mills Heritage Trail

This approximately 1.1-mile biking and walking trail commemorates Putnam's link to the American Industrial Revolution. The trail overlaps two sections of the Putnam River Trail and begins on Kennedy Drive at the Monohansett Mill historical marker. Follow the brown trail directional signs as they bring you cross the Quinebaug River to the Cargill Falls Mill on Pomfret Street - the oldest cotton mill site in the nation (1807). Follow Church Street to the Morse Mansion and the original 1874 Putnam High School since converted to the Town Hall. Then back to the western bank of the Quinebaug River for views of mills across and up the river before coming upon the Morse Mill. On to Providence Street and its outstanding bridge views of mill dams and the prominent Belding/Powhatan Mill. Visit the display at Miller Park before returning to Kennedy Drive and the adjacent Rhodes and Nightingale Mills. Follow the Putnam River Trail back to parking, shops and restaurants.
